Student Life

What haven't we done? We have defied tradition and blazed our own paths. We have achieved acclamation for our various endeavors and infamy for our mischievous behavior. We have been a class of independent spirits and rebellious natures, yet we have come together in classes, on the field and in clubs to discuss our ideas and plans for our futures.

What haven't we done? We have traveled the world, from London to Zimbabwe, exploring foreign cities and soaking up local cultures. We have scored tie breaking goals, won nail biting games and broken BMHS records.

What haven't we done? We have solved math equations, dissected pigs, debated history and analyzed Shakespeare. We have starred in school plays, worked in our community, and created our own small businesses.

What haven't we done? We have made memories, shared experiences and forged friendships that will remain with us throughout or lives. We have defined who we are as individuals and made a name for ourselves as the class of 2006.

What haven't we done?

Ricky and Leif were all pumped up!

Erin and Ryan danced the night away.

What haven't we done 2006

It was only a few years ago on March 26, 2004 that we spent the night dancing away at the Irish American Club in Billerica. Our Sophomore Semi was a night to remember. Even though the cold rain fell outside it was just starting to get hot inside. While the D.J.'s music filled the room the beat filled us all. With friends, food and music the night seemed like it would never end. At the end of the Semi, the class of 2006 was leaving its first dance as a class with tired feet and great memories.

Junior Prom

The class of 2006 couldn't have asked for more for a formal dance. The Junior Prom was held at the Burlington Marriott on Thursday, May 12, 2005. The sky was filled with sunshine, and anticipation filled the air. Dismissal notes flew in as girls were anxious to get into their elegant gowns. The guys were feeling sharp in their tuxedos as they prepared for a great night out. After professional pictures were done, the dancing began. The DJ was excellent, playing a variety of songs that everyone enjoyed. Despite the brief "interruption" we had, the night continued smoothly with more snapshots and dancing. The picture frames we received were a great memento of a stylish and eventful night!

The girls are all smiles waiting for a great night to begin.

Danielle Sullivan and Amy Vinson strike a pose

Melanie and Angela take a snapshot before the dancing begins.

Megan and Greg-- looking cute together as always.

The girls are all smiles while they take a break from the dance floor.

Holly and Laura having a blast!

Two cute couples enjoy the sunshine.

Amanda and Dan looking great.

Jason Augustino, Mark French, Dan Gallagher, and Bobby Thompson-some '06 crew boys.

The girls glam it up for the camera.

Jess Girard and Chris Hartery cozy up to the camera.

What haven't we done 2006

What haven't we done? The Class of '06 is one for the record books. Unlike many past senior classes, the Class of' '06 can not boast of a victorious senior year Spirit Week. Although this might indicate that our class lacked school spirit and BMHS pride, nothing could be further from the truth. Many seniors did participate in the wacky dress up days, which included Class Unity Day, Mismatched Day, Pajama Day and Occupation Day. Rather than expend all of our energy on these activities, we saved up our enthusiasm for the true heart of Spirit Week, the Pep Rally. On the day of the Pep Rally, the real spirit of the Class of '06 was evident as our class united as one. We rocked the bleachers and screamed ourselves hoarse as we rooted for our sports teams and the most successful sports season in BMHS fall sports history.

Darlene, Carolyn, Kathy and Gene are the future breadwinners of the Class of '06!

Megan and Jess show their patriotism!

What haven't we done 2006

Enthusiasm mounted throughout Spirit Week. From Mix Match Day to Decade Day, we showed our pride for BMHS in anticipation of the big Thanksgiving showdown against Chelmsford. On the day before the big game, our enthusiasm reached its height as we prepared for the annual Pep Rally. Excitement coursed through our veins as we filled the bleachers decked out in green and white.

The senior section stood out from all of the rest. Seniors showed their pride from head to toe; they wore everything from creative t-shirts and face paint to show their support for the BMHS fall sports Teams. As the fall sports captains were led in by the cheerleaders, the seniors screamed as loud as they could. They all waited in anticipation for the results of the Spirit Week competition. Disappointingly, the seniors finished in third place but that did not dampen their spirits as the Class of '06 was reminded that they had been an integral part of the most successful falls sports season in BMHS history.

Finally, the most anticipated speech of the day arrived. Coach Flynn took the mic to deafening applause and guaranteed us a victory over Chelmsford. The gym roared with applause and our confidence soared. We knew we would defeat Chelmsford. After all, what hadn't we done?

J-Mac takes down the opposition.

Steve Burgoyne riles up J-Mac

Ricky Casello dives for the ball.

What haven't we done 2006

On Thanksgiving morning we awoke to the smell of turkey and a few inches of snow. Despite the cold, the Billerica faithful bundled up and headed to the Marshall Field to support the Indians.

Led by senior captains Greg Abelli, Rick Casello, James McCluskey, Sean Souza and Jimmy Galvin, the Indians were unstoppable. The first touchdown of the day was scored when Abelli caught a pass by sophomore Tim Morrison. Abelli scored again on a 94-yard run as the fans went wild. This was followed by McCluskey running into the end zone to make the score 21-0.

The defense also had an outstanding game; they did not allow Chelmsford to get a first down. In the second half, the defense stopped the Lions from getting past the 50 yard line and kept a shut out on the goal line stand.

This 21-0 Thanksgiving win earned the Indians the 2005 MVC Championship.

Class of 2006

What haven't we done?

In September 2002, we shuffled into BMHS as nervous freshmen.

We were unsure of ourselves, where we fit in and how to find the "old building."

We were jostled in the halls by the upperclassmen and could never manage to get our lockers open.

We didn't think we would ever find our place or our way in our big new school—but we did.

That group of scared freshmen united and became confident seniors ready to take the world by storm.

Each of us found our own niche in the building that became our home for four years.

We found friends, mentors and new experiences that changed us forever.

Faculty

What haven't they done?

The faculty at BMHS was central to our high school years.

They inspired us, dazzled us, bored us, motivated us and pushed us to our limits.

They assigned endless mounds of projects and papers, forced us to dissect pigs, and asked us to explore the meaning of life.

They stayed two hours after school when we just couldn't solve that math equation and punished us to an hour after school detention when we skipped (only on occasion).

They helped us raise money for our senior events and they coached us in our sporting tournaments.

What haven't they done?

Administration

Dr. Calabrese
Superintendent of Schools

June 2006

Dear Class of 2006:

You and I share a common experience. For a signi ant part of our lives we were associated with the Biller t Schools. It took you thirteen years to finish; I was slower. It took me twenty-two years. But we both will have our commencement and look forward to n w beginnings.

Maybe you will do something that no one else has e r done, or maybe you will do what many others have Either way, be proud of what you do and do it to th es of your ability. May I wish each member of the Cl s o 2006 success in your future.

Thank you for fond memories.

Sincerely,

Robert J. Calabrese

ear Graduates,

would, once again, like to congratulate you on the success-l completion of your high school career. In educating you, e have tried to accomplish three things: we have introduced ou to some of the best thinking of the past; we have sought to epare your minds for an uncertain future where knowledge and formation will be drawn upon in uncertain ways which may difficult to anticipate; and, we have tried to model aspects of vility in the treatment of people and things. We ask that you ntinue to draw upon these influences in order to identify with the ethical, moral, and responsible as-cts of your goals. In so doing, we hope that as you pursue those goals, you will continue to develop growing capacity for determining what is appropriate and what is right.

s a group, you, the Class of 2006, have learned the principles that we have sought to teach you. You e well prepared to meet the challenges of a future filled with both opportunity and some uncertainty, nd you have shown us that you are capable of acting, in ways that promote common good that unites all in common cause.

Vith that said, I look toward your futures with the greatest of confidence.

ongratulations and best wishes,

Retiring Faculty & Administrator

In 2006, many dedicated administrators and educators retired from the Billerica Public School system. Among these retirees was the Superintendent of Public Schools, Dr. Robert Calabrese. After 30 years of service, Dr. Calabrese passed the baton on to Dr. Serio. Still, his legacy will live on, as his contributions to the school system will never be forgotten. Four Assistant Principals also said good-bye to their students in 2006: Dr. McCarthy, Mr. O'Brien, Mr. Bishop and Mr. Connelly. Collectively, these four individuals dedicated over 75 years of service to the Billerica school system. These administrators were not alone. All across the school district, revered teachers ended their illustrious careers as educators. At Billerica High School, ten faculty members said their farewells. These retirees included: Mr. Alvino, Ms. Roberts, Mr. Clarke, Mr. Coletti, Mr. Davison, Ms. Delorey, Mr. Pagliarulo, Mr. Sillery, Mr. Tsoukalas and Mr. Whitaker. These educators served as mentors, colleagues and friends to many. Their commitment to their students and the Billerica community will always be fondly remembered.

Fall Sports

What haven't we done?

Each autumn, when the leaves began to fall, we began to prepare for the arduous fall sports season. Soccer balls, cleats, pompoms, volleyballs and putters all came out of our closets as we made our way to the locker rooms.

Each fall season we played until our legs trembled, our backs ached and our bodies begged for mercy. We crossed finish lines, won championships, scored touchdowns and swam our personal bests.

We sustained painful injuries but we wouldn't let them stop us; instead we trained harder and pushed ourselves further for ourselves and our teams.

We cheered until we were hoarse and perfected our musical routines. We gave it all we had, and then gave it some more.

What didn't we do?

What haven't we done?

What haven't we done

Boys Soccer

The 2005-2006 boys soccer team was led by Junior Captains C.J. Fiumara, Mike Gramzow and Aaron Hopkins. Seniors Mario Paradiso, Matt Moore, J.D. Breingan, Cody Breedlove, Dave Zammuto and Evan Caples also provided outstanding leadership on and off the field. The team went 5-6-4 during the season. Disappointingly, the team finished one win shy of capturing the MVC title. Still the team had many outstanding wins and were proud of their dramatic and exciting season. Most dramatically, the team beat Dracut, the top ranking team in Massachusetts, 1-0 in a nail biting match-up. Ser Mario Paradiso scored the game winning goal fro cross to a volley to win the match for the Indians. M other seniors also had an outstanding season. D Zammuto played stellar defense, Matt Moore provi the vision in the midfield, Evan Caples played outsta ing in goal in the state cup (in addition to boosting team's academic class rank), and despite fighting injury all season Cody Breedlove always stepped up help the team.

Girls Soccer

The 2005 BMHS Girl's Varsity Soccer season was a great success. With a record of 13-3-2, they became MVC Co-Champions. Jamie Gillis, the MVC Top Goalie, along with her fellow defenders Jenna Carideo and Michelle Lamar, brought the team to 11 shutouts. This team is also the only team in school history to hold opponents to one goal or less each game. Fellow seniors Jackie Price, Emily Kozlowski and Liz Leonard also had a phenomenal year. In addition, Sandra Guglielmi and Rachel Robichaud received the MVC All Star Award, and Michelle Lamar, Jamie G and Jenna Carideo received the MVC All Conference Aw Captains Michelle Lamar, Jenna Carideo, and Jamie C did a great job maintaining team unity. All eight sen brought many laughs and great memories to a team will never be forgotten. The girls leave this year with t heads held high and the memories of an outstand season to cherish forever. Girls Volleyball

The girls volleyball team had high expectations for the 2005-2006 season. The returning seniors wanted to relive their freshmen season and make a return to States. Led by captains Amanda Sawyer, Rachel Sawyer, and Nicole Flaherty the girls worked hard to reach this goal. Unfortunately, the team was plagued by many injuries early in the season. Despite these obtacles, the girls never lost faith. Both Andrea Dupre and Sara Barker used their voices and spirit to encourage their team members. As a result, the team had an excit g season. The team swept Haverhill and Wesford. A d in a nail biting game, Billerica brought Chelmsf d into a fifth game (the first time any team brou t Chelmsford to a fifth game all season) in front c a packed gymnasium. The team played with inten y all season and the although the team did not m e States, all of the seniors had a season they will ne r forget.

Fall Cheerleading

This was the best season in all of BMHS cheerleading history! The seniors on the football cheerleading squad were Amanda Cianciulli, Amanda Cincotta, Stefany Ramos, Kristen Sarazen, Melanie Shaw, and Allison Soly. At the MVCs the squad finished in second place. They also took second place at the regional competition and united to take sixth at State In addition, they received a bid to Nationals This was the second time BMHS cheerleadin went to States and the first time the team qual fied for Nationals. Football

The 2005-2006 football team began its season with high expectations, as many believed this team to be the most talented to play in BMHS history. Despite the pressure, the team met all of these expectations and more. Led by senior captains James McCluskey, Ricky Casello, Jimmy Galvin, Greg Abelli and Sean Souza, the team was unstoppable both offensively and defensively throughout the season. The offensive line was led by Casello and Doug Gallant, who were both first team all-conference in the MVC. Seniors Kevin Dabrieo, Peter Martell and Jeff Clemente were also outstanding on the offensive line. Defensively, the team was led by Galvin, Souza and senior Bobby Sawyer, who all made the first tea all-conference as well. Meanwhile. Abelli and McClusky spe headed both the offense and defense; their spectacular pl awarded them the title of co-MVPs for the MVC. Because this enormous talent and the hard work of the entire squa the team was undefeated in the MVC. Most memorably, t Indians defeated their arch-rivals the Chelmsford Lions in exciting and snowy Thanksgiving Day game, which advanc them to the playoffs. In the playoffs, the Indians met a tou Woburn team. The game was a defensive battle but in t end Woburn took the win.

Boys Cross-Country

Cross country, a sport that is highly demanding and rewarding, requires the utmost of dedication and endurance to succeed. With Captains Carl Anderson and John Paul O'Brien leading the group, the team had the strong year that was anticipated. As coach Joe "B-Rad" Bradford guided them for his second year as running coach, each runner, new and old, saw personal records marked on their times for nearly every race of the year. As the season progressed, the times dropped with the temperature; and by the time MVCs and Franklin Park rolled around, : of the team's strongest runners performed to anticipated high caliber. Winter Sports

What haven't we done?

Each winter, when the snow began to fall, we refused to hibernate and stormed into the gymnasiums instead.

We worked long hours in the frigid cold, preparing to be the best competitors in our division and our state.

We ran suicides, body checked and tumbled on the mats all in order to prepare for a victorious winter season.

Nothing could stop us from being the best; not even when Mother Nature hurled a blizzard in our direction. We persevered and forged through wintry slush in order to defeat our opponents on the mat or in the rink.

Our victories and the cheers of our fans were all the warmth we needed.

Wrestling

The 2005-2006 wrestling team had a successful year and finished 11th in the New England Championships. Additionally, the Indians finished second out of 16 teams at the Tyngsboro Big Red Tournament and fourth at the Chelmsford Invitational. Although the team was among the best tournament teams in New England, they struggled in dual meets finishing with a regular season record of just around .500. The season was highlighted by many great individual performances. Brothers Kenny and Carl Anderson compiled a combined record of 64-3 as the postseas neared. Although Jim Galvin missed parts of the season d to injury, he finished the regular season with an undefeat record. Darrin Cassidy and Eric Tibbetts also added to t success of the 05-06 team. Darrin was ranked among t top ten in the state entering the post season. Girls Basketball

After many successful seasons, the Girls Varsity Basketball team was moved up into the MVC large school division for the first time in the history of Billerica Memorial High School. As a result, their 2005-2006 season was extremely challenging. While having to adjust to the demands of a difficult schedule, the girls team also welcomed a new coach. Even though the team had to ad to these two positive changes, they perseve and went 7-13 for the season. Winter Cheerleading

The 2005-2006 Winter Cheerleading season was full of many ups and downs. After losing its cheerleading coach at the beginning of the season, the team faced many obstacles. Although many team members were tempted to quit the team mid-season, they persevered and stay together as a team to finish the seas and cheer on the boys basketball tea The cheering squad was led by seni Stefany Ramos, Kristen Sarazen, Mela Shaw, and Allison Soly.

Boys Hockey

The 2005-2006 season was a rebuilding year for BMHS hockey. The team went a disappointing 3-17-2 in a year that one could only describe as the perfect storm for the program. The team returned only four seniors, while other league opponents' rosters boasted seniors in double digits. The season was not without its bright spots, however; several talented underclassmen stepped in and helped returning seniors Bill MacDonald, Nathan Scarpaci, and Nick Tarani hold down the fort. Senior goalie Todd Rowley provided Billerica's young defense corps with the best goal tending in the MVC. Still inexperience and inconsistency plagued Billerica and resulted in a winless season in the MVC. BMHS missed out on a Division 1 State tournament berth as well. However, the tea did enjoy some mild successes on the ice. One of Billeric three wins came from a high scoring thriller against a hig ranked Longmeadow club. Billerica held a commanding le into the third period before Longmeadow stormed back get within one of the Indians. Senior Todd Rowley stopp several last-second chances by a desperate Longmeadc team. On top of this sweet victory, BMHS also sent fo players to the All-star game. During a challenging seasc not one player quit on themselves, each other or the tea Ultimately, this is the legacy that the 2006 team leaves Billerica hockey.

Girls Ice Hockey

Dedicated. To be a member of the BMHS girls hockey team one must be dedicated and driven to succeed not only as an individual but as a member of a team. Being a member of the BMHS hockey team means sacrificing not only your body on the ice, but also your much needed sleep; every morning the girls showed this dedication hitting the ice at 5 a.m. for their morning practice. They skated hard so they could be the best. Captains Amanda Cianciulli, Emily Keegan and Megan McPadden were dynamic leaders for their team; they put everything they had into each prac and game. Seniors Meghan Griffin and Bryanna Verley supported their team with their enthusiam and leaders As a result of their arduous schedule, the 2005-2006 hockey team became more than just a team, they bec a tight-knit family. From pasta parties, to rockin' wa ups the girls supported each other throughout their r coaster season. All of the seniors will be sorely misse the upcoming season.

Girls Winter Track

The girls track team had one of the best seasons in recent Billerica history. The two most important dual meets of the season came down to the last event, the 4x400 relay. And in both meets the team of Lamar, Sordello, Fitzpatrick, and Girard was victorious. As a result, the team clinched the MVC Division 2 title. At the highly prestigious Dartmouth Relays there were also strong individual performances by Girard, McCarty and Fitzpatrick. At State Relays, the girls' distance team finished 3rd and advanced to the following week's Elite Relays. Here, the team of Girard, Comerford, Lamar and Fitzpatrick placed 2nd, qualifying them for Nationals and ranking them 14th in the country. At the MVC lea meet Fitzpatrick placed first in the mile and McCarty second in the h jump; Girard ran a national qualifying time in the 1000. The team's succ continued at the Division 1 Championships where Fitzpatrick placed 2 Lamar 4th and Girard 5th. The following week at All - States, Girard finis 10th in her event while Fitzpatrick ran a 5:05 mile, a national qualif time which advanced her to New Englands. To cap off the season, quartet of Girard, Comerford, Fitzpatrick and Girard traveled to N York to compete in the National Championships.

Spring Sports

What haven't we done?

Each spring, when the flowers began to blossom, we came out of hibernation. We flocked to the playing fields and the courts, revitalized for the competitive spring season.

Our lacrosse sticks, baseball gloves and tennis rackets became our best friends as we practiced for lengthy hours. In games and matches, we gave it our all, body and soul.

We slid into home base, dived for the volley and hurdled until our bodies throbbed.

We made game winning catches, blocks and assists leading our teams to victory.

We celebrated these victories and we suffered our defeats. But we never gave up on ourselves or our teams.

Boys Baseball

The beginning of the season was rocky for the boy's baseball team. Although the team had outstanding talent, they lost three of their first thirteen games. Despite this setback, the team persevered under the leadership of captains Steve Burgoyne and Greg Abelli. As the season continued, their bats warmed up, their fielding improved and their desire to win increased. By the end of the season, the team boasted a record of 9-11. Sadly, the team was only one ga[me] short of making the state tournament. Still the te[am] was proud of their many accomplishments, includ[ing] their victory at the Canaligator tournament at [the] Lowell Spinners stadium. Although the softball team ended up with a losing record, they still had a great season. Captains Katie Sullivan, Lauren Collins and Sarah Croke did a great job keeping the team's morale up and making all the girls work hard. Captain Lauren Collins invented the team's war cry "Bahii Bahii." Although the true meaning of "Bahii Bahii" is a mystery, it was the source of much laughter for the team and became a big saying among the girls. Katie Sullivan stepped it up as catcher, earning herself an All Conference Award. And Sarah Croke took one for the team when she made the t n- sition from center field to shortstop. Elyse Grey so had a great impact on the team with her phenom a slapping at the plate. Coach Higgins truly appreci ed Elyse's great organization skills as well as her abilit to keep the team upbeat. Boys Volleyball

The boys volleyball team was lead by seven seniors: Paul Bradley, Evan Caples, Brad DePierro, Jeff Beckford, Jerry Arensbach, Marcio DeMelo and Ryan Flaherty. The two captains, Paul and Evan, motivated the team and lead them to several victories. All of the seniors played hard. Whenever they were on the court, the boys gave their hea and sweat to win. From Goldsmith's unstoppab serving to Bradley's diving to keep balls playabl the team gave it all they had. Most memorabl the drive and determination of the team allowe them to beat Lowell both times they met.

Clubs & Organizations

What haven't we done?

When the school day ended at 2:02 most of us didn't go home. Instead, we got involved.

We joined clubs and organizations and stayed into the night working on political campaigns, newspaper articles and business proposals. We memorized lines, discussed poetry, and blended harmonies. During late night sessions, we convened to determine how to positively change our school community while eating pizza with friends.

We saw the fruits of our labor come to fruition when the courtyard was reopened, and lost a little bit of our optimism when it was quickly re-closed.

We toiled over page layouts and set designs, honing our artistic skills. We tutored and visited shelters, fostering a humanitarian spirit. We planned fundraisers and proms, creating memories for all. And no matter what we were doing we always had a ball.

What didn't we do?

N.H.S. INDUCTION CEREMONY

ck Lombardini lights the ceremonial candle.

N.H.S. officers take a break from their studies.

The Class of 2006 N.H.S. members are ready to pass on the torch.

N.H.S. members light their candles.

Jenna Carideo walks in the ceremonial procession.

I.H.S. members take part in the induction ceremony.

Kyle Wicks and the rest of the stage crew work the sound board.

Reverend Parris (Michael Wood) chastizes Abigail (Coreen Knowles) for her devious behavior.

The cast of "The Crucible" stars in their very own poster.

Elizabeth Proctor (Hope Middleton) and Ann Putnam (Katie Sullivan) look over a sick Betty Parris (Lierin Sawyer).

Tituba (Ivy Buena) conjures spirits.

John Proctor (Ryan Wolfe) meets with his lover Abigail (Coreen Knowles) in an attempt to save lives.

Reverend Parris (Michael Wood) laments over his sick child (Lierin Sawyer).

"The Crucible"

The BMHS Theater Company presented their production of Arthur Miller's "The Crucible" in the fall of 2005. Produced by Ms. Yoniak, "The Crucible" tells the story of the witchcraft hysteria that broke out in Salem, Massachusetts in 1692. In the play, a group of girls, led by Abigail Williams (played by Coreen Knowles), incite the epidemic with false accusations. Quick to help the girls name names, Reverend Parris (Michael Wood) points out anyone who dislikes him in the village. These scapegoats include John and Elizabeth Proctor (Ryan Wolfe, Hope Middleton), accused because of John's adulterous relationship with Abigail. In an attempt to save his wife's life, Proctor forces Mary Warren (Sarah Breunig), his servant, to testify against her friends. When Mary's testimony proves insufficient, Proctor reveals his affair to the court, which leads to his ultimate death.

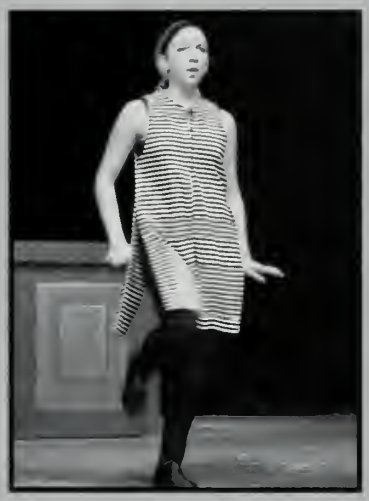
The entire senior cast delivered memorable performances. Coreen Knowles, Michael Wood, Ryan Wolfe, Hope Middleton and Sarah Breunig shined in their lead roles. Supporting actors Alex Skaggs (Thomas Putnam), Katie Sullivan (Ann Putnam), Lierin Sawyer (Betty Parris) and Rachel Foti (Rebecca Nurse) also delivered stellar performances. However, the production would not have been possible without the help of the dedicated stage crew. Behind the scenes, senior crewmembers Lisa Rogers, Rachael Bliss, Carrie Savage, Kyle Wicks, Steve Blake and Eric Marcouollier toiled to make the production a success.

Ryan Wolfe shines in the spotlight.

Hope Middleton and Ryan Wolfe share an emotional moment on stage.

Eric Simon and Matt Fuller praise Coreen during "But Alive."

Lindsey Lucier sings and dances during "The Applause" number.



The dancers take a break for the camera.

Megan Tainter, as Eve, hits on Coreen's man, Mike Wood.

Vicki Brooks plots a scheme for Eve.

"Applause"

In 2006, The BMHS Theater Company presented the Tony Award winning musical "Applause." Produced by Ms. Yoniak and Mr. Gagnon, the musical is a behind-the-scenes peak at the world of show business. Margo Channing (played by Coreen Knowles) is a Broadway star on the decline (as there is no room in show business for an aging actress). Margo befriends a young chorus girl, Eve (Megan Tainter); however, Eve quickly becomes Margo's main competition. Ultimately, Eve sabotages Margo so that she can star in the play. However, this betrayal does not destroy Margo as she finds solace in the man she loves, Bill (Mike Wood).

Many seniors lit up the stage with their brilliant performances. Senior cast members included Coreen Knowles, Vicki Brooks, Eric Simon, Alex Skaggs, Megan Tainter, Ryan Wolfe, Mike Wood, Sarah Breunig, and Lindsey Lucier. The musical also featured choreography by Mary Jane Schram. Dancers Kathy Dobi, Kristen Ford, Rachel Foti, Amy Fowler, Matt Fuller, Holly Gray, Teresa Hogan, Kim Logan, Ally Mahoney, Hope Middleton, and Lierin Sawyer lit up the stage with their fancy footwork. Behind the scenes crewmembers Lisa Rogers, Rachael Bliss, Carrie Savage, Kyle Wicks, Steve Blake, Eric Marcoullier, Jenna McNeil and Melissa Levicki worked long hours to make the production possible.

The patrons at the bar are awe-struck when Coreen enters.

Coreen commands the stage as Eve.

As fashion stylist to the star, Alex Skaggs steals the limelight.

The partygoers sing a tune.

The beatniks entertain at the party.

Dance, dance, dance!

And more dancing!

Sarah Breunig is a concerned agent.

Eve receives congratulations from her adoring fans.

Mike and Coreen take a bow.

What haven't we done?

After four years of high school, we thought we had done it all. But the final weeks of our high school careers were full of new experiences.

In the closing weeks of school, we were recognized for our academic, athletic and community achievements. We came together as a class to party the day away at Cedardale. soaking up the sun and our final memories together.

We donned our ballgowns and tuxedos for one last final hurrah; dancing the night away. After four years of high school, we thought we had done it all. But the final weeks of our high school careers were full of new experiences.

Most memorably, we took the most anticipated walk of our lives. As a class, we paraded across the stage at the Tsongas arena and received our diplomas.

And finally, for the first time, we gathered together to say our goodbyes.

What haven't we done?

What haven't we done 2006

After a long graduation rehearsal in the overheated gym, the members of the Class of '06 were ready to have some fun. Seniors flooded out to the student parking lot and carpooled up to the Cedardale/Groveland country club. Under the intense sun, seniors played mini-golf, volleyball, tennis and basketball. Because of the heat, many students flocked to the pool. Poolside, students watched the humourous diving contest that was underway. After the diving spectacle, it was time to relax in the jacuzzi and and reminisce about their times together as the Class of '06. Afterall, WHAT HASN'T THE CLASS OF '06 DONE?

John Meyer spikes the ball.

What haven't we done 2006

On June 2, 2006 the night we had been anticipating all year long arrived: our senior prom. Despite the threat of rain, our big night was not dampened. We all arrived at the Danvers Port Yacht Club looking like movie stars as we stepped out of our limos onto our own red carpet. The serene ocean backdrop completed the elegant affair. Throughout the evening we danced the night away, only stopping to taste the delicious buffet food or pose for a snapshot with our friends. As the evening came to a close, the final strains of Green Day's "The Time of Your Life" echoed across the ballroom and spoke to our hearts.
We truly had the times of our lives.

What haven't we done 2006

In the words of Coreen Knowles, the Senior Class President of 2006, "this is it." Graduation took place in the Tsongas Arena on 6-6-06, a day none of us will forget. Our Valedictorian, Chas Hanlon, gave a shocking speech that left the audience speechless. Then Evan Caples, Salutatorian, gave an inspiring speech about his memories and hard work from his highschool career. Rounding out the evening, Mr. LoDuca, the guest speaker, gave final advice to the graduating class. Then the moment we had all been waiting for... the diplomas! After we tossed our caps in the air, it was off to the Billerica Blast until five in the morning!

Graduation

Cody Breedlove, Andy McKenzie, Tim Parker, and Jon Dillon are proud to be graduates!

We had a BLAST!

After participating in the graduation ceremonies, members of the Class of 2006 gathered together in the gymnasium for the annual Billerica Blast. This all-night party began at 11 p.m. and continued on into the wee morning hours. The night was filled with many activities. If the newly graduated seniors weren't singing off-key karaoke tunes or running the blow-up obstacle courses, they were gorging themselves on Chinese food, pizza or ice cream sundaes. As 4 a.m. approached their sugar rushes wore off, but everyone agreed that they had had a Blast!

What haven't they done?

Throughout our twelve years of school, our families and our community were our support system.

What haven't they done?

They were our biggest fans; they cheered for us from the bleachers and were the first to congratulate us whether we won or lost.

What haven't they done?

They were always willing to dig into their pockets to support our teams and our causes. They bought raffle tickets, t-shirts and bracelets so that their kids could have the best.

What haven't they done?

They were dedicated to our education. They enthusiastically attended Parent Conferences; even waiting in line all night to make sure that we were excelling.

What haven't they done?

As proud parents and employers, they prepared us for the world outside of Billerica. They always encouraged us and pushed us to be our bests.

What haven't they done?

They have said their good-byes, shedding tears as we walked across the stage at graduation, but knowing that it was time for us to leave the nest.

What haven't they done?

Finally, they reminded us that there is no place like home.

What haven't they done?

What haven't we done?

Davey,

It seems like it was just yesterday when we were waiting for you to come home from your first day of kindergarten. Seventeen years later, you are graduating from high school, and soon going off to college. We are so proud of you and all that you have accomplished. Remember as you start your new journey, that you hold the world on the palm of your hands and it is up to you to decide what you are going to do with it. Never forget that we will always be there to support you, in all that you do.

Love,

Mom and Dad
